Louis Digena Celebrates 25th Anniversary with the staff

Louis Digena, Supervisor, Internal Applications, Computer Services Division, joined the AICPA Staff on December 16, 1954 as a clerk in the Shipping Department.

Four months later, Lou was transferred to the Circulation Department where he progressed from Addressograph Operator to Scriptomatic Operator to Supervisor.

Lou left the Institute to join the Army in September of 1961 but he returned to the AICPA two years later.

Early in 1968 he became Supervisor of Computer Operations. He has held his present position since 1971.

William Bruschi, Ethelyn Kreidell and Barbara Schildneck Mark 20 Years with the AICPA

William C. Bruschi, Vice President-Review & Regulation, joined the AICPA Staff on December 1, 1959 as Assistant Director of the Education Department.

In March of 1965, Bill was promoted to Director of the Examinations Division and five years later he was asked to head up the new Information Retrieval Division.

Bill was appointed Vice President-Technical in October 1971. He received his present title in March 1976.

Ethelyn Kreidell, Copying Coordinator, Reproduction Department, Office Management Division, joined the AICPA Staff on May 1, 1959 as a Multilith Operator. Effective January 1, 1962, Ethel became Assistant Supervisor, Duplicating. Early last year she became Duplicating Coordinator and on July 1, Copying Coordinator.

Barbara Schildneck, Managing Editor, Journal of Accountancy, joined the AICPA Staff on September 14, 1959 as a Production Trainee in the Publications Division.

In January 1961, she was promoted to Junior Production Assistant; a year later, she advanced to Senior Production Assistant.

In 1967, Barbara became an Assistant Editor. Seven years later, she was named Manuscript Editor of the Journal of Accountancy. Her latest promotion to her present position occurred just last month.

George Taylor to Retire in November

George Taylor, Senior Controller, joined the AICPA Staff on April 10, 1961 as Assistant Controller. Two years later, he was promoted to Controller.

When George was hired, there were 152 employees on the Staff (today we're over 455).

When he became Controller and Director of the Accounting and Office Service Division, he assumed responsibility for the following areas of activity: Accounting, Order, Membership Records, Circulation, Personnel, the Library, Office Services, Files, Mail, Purchasing, Duplicating, Shipping and a three-member group called "IBM", the forerunner of what was to become the key punch operation—all told, 74 members of the Staff.

George was promoted to Senior Controller as of the first of this year.

Esther Gilmore to Retire in June

Esther Gilmore, Bookkeeper, General Accounting, Controller Division, joined the AICPA Staff on October 7, 1968.

Esther received her 10-Year Award at last year's General Meeting of the Staff. She plans to retire from the Institute in June of this year.
